Problem/Solution Paragraph
Directions: After learning about the conflict and solution, complete the following paragraph.

The problem between___________________ and ___________________ was that __________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
The _____________________________ felt that they were right, because_____________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
On the other side, the ________________________________ thought they were right, because __________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
How the conflict was solved was ________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
This affects me today, because ______________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
I think this was the right/wrong thing to do, because______________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________