Honoring The Elders Who Came Before Us

- Four of these Elders are outstanding in the number and length of recorded words and stories that have gone into the development of the Klallam Grammar:
- Edward Sampson Sr., Elwha
- Thomas Charles, Becher Bay
- Martha John, Port Gamble
- Amy Allen, Jamestown

Honoring The Elders Who Came Before Us

- Two of the Elders listed stand out as contributing a truly heroic amount of effort to this project:
- Beatrice Charles and Adeline Smith
- They helped transcribe the recorded material from all the other Elders.
